2018 Millard F. Rogers, Jr. Lecture

*The Lady of Loveland:
The Romantic Photographer of Mariemont*

October 18 at 7:00 pm

The WACC Barn
6980 Cambridge Ave
Cincinnati, OH 45227

Reception and slide show 6:00 – 7:00 pm

Nancy Ford Cones was an internationally famous photographer who, in 1926, lived a year in Mariemont to photograph it for publicity. The speaker will be Dr. Ren Egbert, a NFC scholar and collector. The talk will cover Nancy and James Cones' amazing 40 year photography making partnership. It is a romantic story of dedication to their art and family.

This event is part of the Cincinnati FotoFocus 2018 Biennial and the Barn is one of the participating venues. Cones' beautiful pictorialist photographs from the collections of Dr. Egbert, Len Weakley, and the Mariemont Preservation Foundation will be on display at the Barn from October 9 – 31. The Barn's FotoFocus opening reception is October 14 from 1 to 4 pm. For more information on the exhibit please visit artatthebarn.org or call 513-272-3700.

This lecture is part of the MPF's continuing Millard F. Rogers, Jr. Lecture Series. Rogers was Director of the Cincinnati Art Museum, president of the Mariemont Preservation Foundation, and a published authority on the history and planning of Mariemont. He also appointed the first curator of photography at the Art Museum. This lecture series is underwritten by the generous contributions of Nina Rogers, Millard's widow.
